Fiducian Hunter Office Supports Special Needs School

Fiducian Financial Services – Hunter office, is proud to announce another year of funding support for the Special Needs School Surfing program through Redhead Mobile Surf School. Having sponsored the program for over 5 years, local Newcastle business owner and Fiducian Financial Services – Hunter office Financial Adviser, Shane Pinkerton [pictured] has generously donated to save this program from closure.

Miles Niddrie from Redhead Mobile Surf School said “Other funding sources have been reduced which has threatened the Special Needs School Surfing program from continuing”.

Shane Pinkerton was eager to keep the program running and said “I think it’s important to support these students in gaining more experiences in their lives. The difficulties they face day to day would be daunting to most people, so it’s a pleasure to help provide some happiness to these kids. These students can now continue to enjoy what many of us take for granted, a few hours at the beach and the thrill of catching a wave.”

Ends.
