Authorised Representative Fiducian Financial Services

Leasa believes that by providing quality service and advice, and combining this with a commitment to long-term relationships, her clients will be the beneficiaries.

Leasa has worked in the Financial Services industry for over 13 years. She initially worked as a home loan/lending officer. After working for a short time as a paraplanner, Leasa applied her talents to Financial Planning as an Adviser for one of Australia's major banks for nearly 5 years. In 2004, Leasa joined Fiducian Financial Services attracted to the company by the Fiducian values of integrity, trust and expertise.

After completing a Bachelor of Commerce, Leasa quickly gained her Proper Authority. Dedicated to excellence, Leasa proceeded to attain the Financial Planning industry's highest qualification, by becoming a Certified Financial Planner (CFP).

When not engaged in Financial Planning, Leasa enjoys spending time with her three young children.
