Representative

Fiducian Financial Services

As a Fiducian Financial Services Adviser, Mark's commitment is to understand your financial affairs and provide services that help you achieve your goals. Mark's primary focus is to provide the best strategic outcomes for you – as our valued client.

Mark has over 10 years experience in the financial services industry and became a Paraplanner in 2002. This role involved the preparation of financial plans for Fiducian's National Adviser network, providing Mark with the opportunity to hone his technical and financial strategy knowledge – a necessary requirement to providing quality financial planning advice.

He has experience in developing financial plans and strategy for a diverse group of clients, ranging from those looking to build wealth to those who have retired.

Mark's academic achievements include a Bachelor of Business degree from the University of Technology Sydney, Graduate Diploma's from the Securities Institute in Financial Planning and Applied Finance & Investment and an Advanced Diploma of Financial Services (Superannuation) from ASFA. Mark has been admitted as a Fellow of the Financial Services Institute of Australasia.
