Clem Dickinson DipFP

Representative Fiducian Financial Services

Clem was ordained into the then Methodist, now Uniting Church, Ministry in 1967 after completing his theological studies at Queens College, Melbourne.

Eighteen years were spent as a Parish Minister in three centres.

In 1983 he was appointed as the Executive Director of Stewardship Australia, the Uniting Church's National Fundraising Agency. He was responsible for presenting programs in church parishes, schools, colleges, aged care facilities and hospitals.

Towards the end of 1991 Clem became the Executive Director of the Uniting Church in Australia Beneficiary Fund, which is the National Superannuation Fund for over 1,500 active and 1,200 retired Uniting Church clergy and spouses. The fund was administered in-house, paid pensions and directly managed most of its investments. At the time of his departure in December 2000 the fund had assets of $250 million.

Clem commenced his financial planning career in 2001 with John Lawrence and Associates, and has successfully completed the Diploma of Financial Planning. In May 2004 he joined Bodinnars Personal Financial Planners as Manager for Victoria and a Representative of Fiducian Financial Services Pty Ltd.
